

WEBINAR

Holistic approach to child victims' rights in Europe

Child Friendly Justice European Network

Wednesday, 4 September

3:00-4:30pm CET

RESOURCES

Websites:

- Child Friendly Justice – European Network: <https://www.cfjnetwork.eu/>
- Victim Support Europe: <https://victim-support.eu>
- European Forum on Restorative Justice: <https://www.euforumrj.org/en>
- Council of the Baltic Sea States: <https://cbss.org>
- European Commission Coordinator for victims' rights: https://commission.europa.eu/strategy-and-policy/policies/justice-and-fundamental-rights/criminal-justice/protecting-victims-rights/ec-coordinator-victims-rights_en
- Barnahus network: <https://www.barnahus.eu/en/publications/>

CFJ-EN, Position paper, Protecting the rights of child victims in Europe. A holistic approach, 2024. The executive summary of the position paper

VSEs proposals for the Victims Directive, safe justice, national victim support framework and communications, etc. can be found on our website:

- Model Provisions Paper \(MPP\)
- Safe Justice for Victims of Crime
- National Framework for Comprehensive Victim Support
- Transforming how we communicate with victims

EFRJ, Restorative Justice and Child Justice

Power Up/Power Down: partnership project between Scottish Women's Aid and the Children and Young People's Commissioner for Scotland, on children's voices where domestic abuse and make the system better.

Domestic Abuse Court Experience Project: research reports on 22 victims' and witnesses' experiences of court since the introduction of the Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Act 2018 (DASA) in April 2019